

Esher & Walton Conservatives

AUTUMN LUNCH

Friday 11th October 2013

12.30pm

San Marco Restaurant, Queens Road, Hersham

Tickets: £20 (includes 2 courses and coffee)

Guest Speaker: Zac Goldsmith MP
Member of Parliament for Richmond Park and North Kingston

Born 20 January 1975, Zac Goldsmith was raised and educated in Britain. After leaving school, Zac worked in the US for two years with a number of environmental organisations. He joined the Ecologist magazine in 1997 and became editor. He launched campaigns on, among other things, climate change, GM food and pesticides. In between his work with The Ecologist and the Conservative Party, Zac raises funds for groups around the world dealing with a broad range of environmental and conservation issues. He helped to establish a number of Environmental foundations that distribute funds to cutting edge campaign organisations. In 2003, Zac received the Beacon Prize for Philanthropy. In 2004 received Mikhail Gorbachev's Global Green Award for 'International Environmental Leadership'. In 2005, Zac was invited to oversee the Conservative Party's Quality of Life Policy Group, which helped develop the Party's policies on issues ranging from transport, housing and energy to food, farming and the countryside. Zac was selected as the Conservative Parliamentary candidate for Richmond Park and North Kingston at an Open Primary in March 2007 and was elected as MP for the constituency in May 2010.

Dominic Raab, our Member of Parliament will also be present.
